2010 Ascheri, Barolo Sorano ££

Perfumed and exotic with some cassis and myrtille notes, there is a core of fruit sweetness here which is indeed attractive. This is a fairly structured wine with some power but it is all tempered by a neat, focussed, cleanly tannic finish. It needs more length and vivacity for perfection and I am concerned about the Diam closure with regard to ageing. 17+/20

2010 Ascheri, Barolo Sorano Coste & Bricco ££

Fruit-forward, juicy and attractive on the nose this is a beautiful wine with bright, palate-cleansing acidity and a perky, tannic finish. This is a lovely, relatively uncomplicated style with good balance and aromatic lift. It will age well, too.
